

Group A: questions for your visitors

When a visitor arrives, read the next unused question and its options aloud, then tick Used. Right answer: the visitor takes one of their pieces. Wrong answer: no piece, and do not tell them the answer. If you are not sure an answer counts, ask your instructor.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
1	Intersectionality says overlapping identities combine into a distinct experience. Which phrase from class sums this up? A. Not additive B. Separate but equal C. The sum of the parts	A: Not additive	☐
2	The BlackBerry keyboard was the same object in 1998, 2005 and 2009. According to the case, what changed three times? A. The keyboard layout B. The person it was for C. The price of the phone	B: The person it was for	☐
3	About how many adults in Canada are credit invisible? A. About 25,000 B. More than 2.5 million C. About 25 million	B: More than 2.5 million	☐
4	Microsoft's inclusive design principles came from research with which communities? A. Game developers B. Disability communities C. Government border agencies	B: Disability communities	☐
5	What share of Canadians aged 15 and over live with a disability? A. 7 percent B. 27 percent C. 50 percent	B: 27 percent	☐
6	In 2019 the Canadian Civil Liberties Association gave police facial recognition which nickname? A. Carding by algorithm B. Stop and search by software C. Digital profiling	A: Carding by algorithm	☐
7	ArriveCAN was mandatory at the border. What was the possible fine? A. $5,000 B. $500 C. $50,000	A: $5,000	☐
8	Name one of the five choice points where a product stops being neutral.	Accept any: which problem gets picked and funded; what data gets collected; what the defaults are; who tests it; who bears the errors	☐
9	Where does the term 'grandfathered' come from? A. 1890s laws exempting white voters from literacy tests B. Old family inheritance law C. Early mainframe version numbering	A: 1890s laws exempting white voters from literacy tests	☐

GROUP A QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
10	How do you set up the buttons in Elgato's Stream Deck app? A. By voice commands B. By typing a short code for each button C. By dragging icons onto a picture of the pad	C: By dragging icons onto a picture of the pad	☐
11	Air Canada's chatbot gave a grieving passenger false fare advice. What did Air Canada argue at the tribunal? A. The passenger should have phoned instead B. The fare policy had changed that day C. The chatbot was a separate legal entity	C: The chatbot was a separate legal entity	☐
12	Name one of the six quick accessibility tests you can run today.	Accept any: use only the keyboard; turn the text up to 200 percent; turn on a screen reader; check the contrast; break a form on purpose; slow it down on mobile data or an old device	☐
13	CBC Gem's described video was built for blind viewers and is used by people listening while cooking. Which week 1 tool does this illustrate? A. Intersectionality B. Structure over intent C. The persona spectrum	C: The persona spectrum	☐
14	Federal passports print only Roman letters. What reason did the slide give? A. The international machine-readable standard B. The Official Languages Act C. The cost of special printers	A: The international machine-readable standard	☐
15	Since January 1, 2026, Ontario employers must say in job postings if artificial intelligence screens applicants. From what size of employer? A. 10 or more employees B. 100 or more employees C. 25 or more employees	C: 25 or more employees	☐
16	The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines have three levels: A, AA and AAA. Which level does Canadian law ask for? A. AA B. A C. AAA	A: AA	☐
17	Name one thing to check before a facial recognition system goes live.	Accept any: test accuracy on the people who will be in front of it, by group; check the training data; audit false positives and false negatives separately; involve the affected communities; limit high-stakes use; give people a way to challenge a match	☐

GROUP A QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
18	On the persona spectrum for one-handed use, which column is a parent holding a baby? A. Situational B. Permanent C. Temporary	A: Situational	☐
19	Why measure outcomes by group after launch? A. Group data is required by the Charter B. A failure hitting one group disappears into the average C. Averages overstate how many users give up	B: A failure hitting one group disappears into the average	☐
20	The 2016 study of 571 games found that sexualisation of female characters peaked when? A. In the 1980s B. In the 1990s C. In the 2010s	B: In the 1990s	☐
21	Name one of the three questions the week 4 deck says to ask every time you build something.	Accept any: Who is not here; Who cannot use this; How might we design it differently	☐
22	CanCode funds girls, Indigenous students and rural youth first. What reason did the course give? A. Those groups scored lowest on a national coding test B. The Charter requires funding to be split by group C. Open programs mostly reach kids who would find them anyway	C: Open programs mostly reach kids who would find them anyway	☐
23	Does a bigger folding screen, like the iPhone Duo's, automatically mean better accessibility? A. Yes, larger targets always help B. Only for users who are blind C. No, layout, focus and text scaling decide it	C: No, layout, focus and text scaling decide it	☐
24	The Truth and Reconciliation Commission made 94 Calls to Action. How many are about digital technology? A. Twelve B. Three C. None	C: None	☐
25	The instructor's example: The Weather Network Android app ignores which phone setting? A. Location sharing B. Text size C. Dark mode	B: Text size	☐

Group B: questions for your visitors

When a visitor arrives, read the next unused question and its options aloud, then tick Used. Right answer: the visitor takes one of their pieces. Wrong answer: no piece, and do not tell them the answer. If you are not sure an answer counts, ask your instructor.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
1	Why did the court throw out DeGraffenreid versus General Motors in 1976? A. General Motors hired women and Black people, so no discrimination B. The layoffs happened before civil rights law C. The five women were not employees	A: General Motors hired women and Black people, so no discrimination	☐
2	In June 2009 the iPhone 3GS came with VoiceOver. What is VoiceOver? A. A voice assistant for sending texts B. A screen reader driven entirely by touch C. A captioning tool for video calls	B: A screen reader driven entirely by touch	☐
3	Credit scoring disadvantages newcomers who pay their bills. What is the model really judging? A. Whether you have a history in its database B. Whether you pay your bills on time C. How much money you earn	A: Whether you have a history in its database	☐
4	Name one of the five Indigenous realities the design has to handle, from the week 4 slide.	Accept any: names; languages; connectivity; data; consent	☐
5	What share of households on First Nations reserves can sign up for fast home internet? A. 65.7 percent B. 96.4 percent C. About 30 percent	A: 65.7 percent	☐
6	The Clearview face-search tool, used by Toronto police officers, was built on what? A. Police mugshots shared with consent B. Passport photos from the federal government C. Three billion photos scraped from the web	C: Three billion photos scraped from the web	☐
7	The four steps from principle to practice end with 'iterate continuously'. What does the slide call the whole process? A. A launch-week task B. A cycle, not a checklist C. A one-time audit	B: A cycle, not a checklist	☐
8	In the Stanford hiring study, why did rejection by one employer predict rejection by others? A. Employers phoned each other about applicants B. Many employers rented the same screening algorithm C. Applicants reused the same weak resume	B: Many employers rented the same screening algorithm	☐
9	What inclusive alternative did the slides give for 'whitelist'? A. Allowlist B. Primary list C. Legacy list	A: Allowlist	☐

GROUP B QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
10	July 2021: a blind board member of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind tried ArriveCAN with a screen reader. What happened? A. Could not find the French version B. Could not set up an account without sighted help C. Was fined for a late submission	B: Could not set up an account without sighted help	☐
11	What is Kat Holmes' word for the gap between a person and a design's assumptions? A. Friction B. Mismatch C. Bias	B: Mismatch	☐
12	A menu button adds the attribute aria-expanded. What can a screen reader now announce? A. Whether the menu is open or closed B. How many items the menu has C. The colour of the button	A: Whether the menu is open or closed	☐
13	The fairer online exam: a longer window, a booked quiet room, an in-person sitting. Same exam, same standard. Which principle is this? A. Compliance is the floor, not the goal B. Equity is differentiated support, built in at every stage C. Technology is not neutral	B: Equity is differentiated support, built in at every stage	☐
14	In the Dene name Sahai?a, what is the character ?? A. A question mark added by mistake B. An accent borrowed from French C. A glottal stop, a letter in Chipewyan	C: A glottal stop, a letter in Chipewyan	☐
15	The instructor's syndii alert system was built for older people. Name one way it still excludes people.	Accept any: alerts must be heard; setup needs a smartphone and internet; the interface is English only; it costs money	☐
16	In 2015 Google Photos gave Black people an animal label. What was Google's fix in production? A. Stopping the model from using that label at all B. Retraining on a balanced data set C. Removing image labels for everyone	A: Stopping the model from using that label at all	☐
17	The online exam needed a webcam, fast internet, a quiet room and your own laptop. How many were about the exam itself? A. Two B. All four C. None	C: None	☐
18	A building has stairs at the entrance. Nobody who built it hated wheelchair users. What is the fix, according to class? A. A ramp B. A sensitivity workshop for the builders C. A sign directing people elsewhere	A: A ramp	☐

GROUP B QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
19	Name one reason people give up on an app, from the week 2 discussion.	Accept any: confusing or slow; hard to read or not in your language; needed something they did not have, like a newer phone or a credit card; it felt like it was not made for them	☐
20	What did the slides say about bias-detection tools? A. They make manual testing unnecessary B. They are required by Ontario law C. They do not replace judgement or listening to affected people	C: They do not replace judgement or listening to affected people	☐
21	For Indigenous languages, what does the slide say software should do? A. Guess the language from the user's location B. Not guess or invent the language; ask the nation C. Default to Cree for every user	B: Not guess or invent the language; ask the nation	☐
22	Lab 1 worked example: ServiceOntario renewal accepted only Visa or Mastercard. What fix did it suggest? A. Waive the renewal fee B. Send cards by mail C. Accept debit	C: Accept debit	☐
23	The avatars case study asked three related questions. Name one.	Accept any: can people see themselves; can they use it; do they feel welcome	☐
24	The federal artificial intelligence law that would have covered algorithms died when? A. June 2021 B. It passed in 2019 C. January 2025	C: January 2025	☐
25	What is the Accessible Canada Act's target year for a barrier-free Canada? A. 2025 B. 2030 C. 2040	C: 2040	☐

Group C: questions for your visitors

When a visitor arrives, read the next unused question and its options aloud, then tick Used. Right answer: the visitor takes one of their pieces. Wrong answer: no piece, and do not tell them the answer. If you are not sure an answer counts, ask your instructor.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
1	Safiya Noble's book opens with a 2011 Google search for 'Black girls'. What is the book called? A. Algorithms of Oppression B. Coded Bias C. Invisible Women	A: Algorithms of Oppression	☐
2	The pothole app needed a smartphone, data and a credit card. Name one alternative path the city could offer.	Accept any: a web form; a phone line; help at the library; a way to verify without a credit card; save now and upload later	☐
3	Algorithmic bias is when a computer system reflects or does what to human bias? A. Removes it B. Cancels it out C. Amplifies it	C: Amplifies it	☐
4	Why does treating inclusive design as a method, not a moral claim, help it get adopted? A. It removes the need for testing B. It brings in people who resist 'social justice' language C. It avoids accessibility law	B: It brings in people who resist 'social justice' language	☐
5	Inclusion is measured where, according to week 2? A. At the door, when people sign up B. At the finish line, not the door C. In the number of downloads	B: At the finish line, not the door	☐
6	Name one of the three kinds of Canadian app on the design privilege slide.	Accept any: language-centric apps, such as government and health apps built English first; urban-focused services, such as food delivery, transit or ride-sharing; banking apps	☐
7	In 2022 an ArriveCAN update wrongly told about 10,200 fully vaccinated iPhone users to do what? A. Quarantine B. Pay a fine C. Delete the app	A: Quarantine	☐
8	In Mobley versus Workday, the court let which applicants join the age claim? A. Applicants under 25 B. Applicants aged 65 or over C. Applicants aged 40 or over	C: Applicants aged 40 or over	☐

GROUP C QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
9	In 2026, Montreal's transit agency ran artificial intelligence cameras in two Metro stations. What did they flag? A. Fare evaders at the gates B. People lingering before closing C. Faces on a police watch list	B: People lingering before closing	☐
10	Name one thing free, prior and informed consent means, according to the slides.	Accept any: no pressure; full information; early enough to shape the decision	☐
11	An app is built expecting a stable internet connection. Under the wall, which kind of barrier is that? A. An assumption B. A requirement C. A default	A: An assumption	☐
12	What minimum contrast for normal text did week 2 give? A. 2 to 1 B. 10 to 1 C. 4.5 to 1	C: 4.5 to 1	☐
13	Changing a word in code costs almost nothing, and is not the same as removing a barrier. Which principle did that slide cite? A. Compliance is the floor, not the goal B. Intersectionality C. The persona spectrum	A: Compliance is the floor, not the goal	☐
14	To make the Stream Deck usable without sight, the developer ViewpointUnseen added screen reader support to what? A. Elgato's own Stream Deck app B. Windows Narrator C. OpenDeck, a free open-source replacement app	C: OpenDeck, a free open-source replacement app	☐
15	In this course, what is the test for bias? A. Whether anyone meant harm B. Outcomes, not intent C. Whether the code mentions a group	B: Outcomes, not intent	☐
16	A persona reads 'Sarah, 28, downtown, new iPhone, fluent English'. At which lifecycle stage is that the warning sign? A. Testing B. Development C. Design	C: Design	☐
17	Amazon's hiring tool, trained on ten years of mostly male resumes, penalised which word? A. Manager B. Canadian C. Women's	C: Women's	☐
18	In the instructor's digital signage product, who is the customer and who is the user? A. Both are the business that buys the screen B. Customer is the viewer; user is the installer C. Customer is the business; user is whoever walks past	C: Customer is the business; user is whoever walks past	☐

GROUP C QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
19	Donna Jodhan, who is blind, won in Federal Court in 2010. What could she not do online? A. Renew her passport B. Apply for a federal job or complete the census C. File her income taxes	B: Apply for a federal job or complete the census	☐
20	During the September 911 outage, why was Text with 9-1-1 a concern? A. It only works on landlines B. It runs on the same 9-1-1 network C. It was switched off for maintenance	B: It runs on the same 9-1-1 network	☐
21	About how many people in Canada can hold a conversation in an Indigenous language? A. About 237,000 B. About 2,400 C. About 2.4 million	A: About 237,000	☐
22	Why is the 'default user' so powerful, according to week 2? A. Nobody ever writes the list down B. It comes from census data C. The accessibility standard requires it	A: Nobody ever writes the list down	☐
23	What is the starting price of the iPhone Duo? A. 999 United States dollars B. 1,999 United States dollars C. 2,999 United States dollars	B: 1,999 United States dollars	☐
24	Which practical tool is 'structured sessions where excluded users shape the decisions'? A. Co-design workshops B. Impact metrics C. Accessibility audits	A: Co-design workshops	☐
25	OCAP is a First Nations framework for data. Name one of its four words.	Accept any: Ownership; Control; Access; Possession	☐

Group D: questions for your visitors

When a visitor arrives, read the next unused question and its options aloud, then tick Used. Right answer: the visitor takes one of their pieces. Wrong answer: no piece, and do not tell them the answer. If you are not sure an answer counts, ask your instructor.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
1	The curb-cut effect is an argument about what? A. A promise that every fix helps everyone B. Where to start C. Why ramps are cheaper than stairs	B: Where to start	☐
2	Why is retrofitting accessibility expensive and usually incomplete? A. Accessibility tools cost more each year B. The law requires a full rebuild C. The exclusion was decided before the code existed	C: The exclusion was decided before the code existed	☐
3	In the 2019 United States government test of face recognition, what was true of the most accurate algorithms? A. They showed the largest differences B. They were never tested on mugshots C. They showed much smaller differences between groups	C: They showed much smaller differences between groups	☐
4	The Auditor General reviewed ArriveCAN in February 2024. What was found about its 177 releases? A. Each one was fully tested B. Most added new languages C. Often little or no documented testing	C: Often little or no documented testing	☐
5	Equity starts from each person's barrier and gives support for it. What does it hold constant? A. The goal B. The amount of support C. The deadline	A: The goal	☐
6	In facial recognition, what does a false positive do? A. Stops an innocent person B. Misses the real suspect C. Deletes a stored photo	A: Stops an innocent person	☐
7	Travellers who could not use ArriveCAN had another route most never heard about. What was it? A. Emailing a form to the border agency B. Giving the information by voice or on paper at the border C. Calling a toll-free line before travel	B: Giving the information by voice or on paper at the border	☐
8	Name one of the ground rules for how we talk in this room.	Accept any: speak from your own experience, with 'I' statements; nobody speaks for a whole group; critique the design, not the person; stories stay in the room, lessons leave; it is fine to change your mind mid-sentence	☐

GROUP D QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
9	A screening tool never asks about race or language. What does it use instead? A. Signals tied to them, like a name or postal code B. Nothing, so it cannot be biased C. A separate questionnaire	A: Signals tied to them, like a name or postal code	☐
10	The Sahai?a slide ends: 'A character set is a blank somebody chose.' What is the missing word? A. Font B. Default C. Rule	B: Default	☐
11	Shared experience as a member of a cultural, racial, linguistic or socioeconomic group is called what? A. Individual identity B. Systemic bias C. Collective identity	C: Collective identity	☐
12	The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines' four principles spell POUR. Name one.	Accept any: perceivable; operable; understandable; robust	☐
13	ArriveCAN had a second route most travellers never heard about. Which week 3 story taught the same lesson? A. Credit scoring B. Amazon's hiring tool C. The 911 outage	C: The 911 outage	☐
14	Canada's Digital Charter of 2019 has ten principles. What is the first? A. Protection from algorithmic discrimination B. Universal access C. Indigenous data sovereignty	B: Universal access	☐
15	Week 1's three compounding stages are education, employment, and what? A. Retirement B. Leadership C. Housing	B: Leadership	☐
16	Who publishes the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines? A. The Government of Canada B. The World Wide Web Consortium C. Microsoft	B: The World Wide Web Consortium	☐
17	Name one thing provincial health apps often assume about their users.	Accept any: a permanent address; a traditional family structure; familiarity with medical terminology; reliable internet access	☐
18	In 1998, before it was renamed BlackBerry, the Research In Motion two-way pager was sold to which community? A. The Deaf community B. Airline pilots C. Bank executives	A: The Deaf community	☐

GROUP D QUESTION SHEET Keep it face down between visitors.

#	Question (read it and the options aloud)	Answer (do not say it)	Used
19	Ontario's accessibility act covers the public sector and organisations of what size? A. Fifty or more employees B. Five hundred or more employees C. Any size at all	A: Fifty or more employees	☐
20	On October 1, 2020, GitHub made which name the default branch for new repositories? A. trunk B. default C. main	C: main	☐
21	Name one of Microsoft's three inclusive design principles.	Accept any: recognise exclusion; learn from diversity; solve for one, extend to many	☐
22	In Gender Shades, face analysis failed darker-skinned women far more often. Why, according to week 2? A. The cameras were too cheap B. The code had a deliberate rule C. The training data was almost all light-skinned men	C: The training data was almost all light-skinned men	☐
23	Design privilege is when creators do what? A. Charge more for accessible features B. Unconsciously design for people like themselves C. Design only for paying customers	B: Unconsciously design for people like themselves	☐
24	According to the closing slide, what does every design choice do? A. Widens or narrows who can take part B. Adds cost to the project C. Moves the product toward compliance	A: Widens or narrows who can take part	☐
25	Truth and Reconciliation Commission Call to Action 92 is addressed to which sector? A. Business B. Universities C. Health care	A: Business	☐